(Will, Portlock Hodges, filed 24 Apr 1854, Lyon County, Kentucky) "The last Will and testament of Portlock Hodges of this county of Caldwell and State of Kentucky, knowing the uncertainty of this Mortal life, and being of sound disposing mind, do publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following - (that is to say, First I give and bequeath unto my son Robert Hodges Forty acres of land known as the Borisland tract, and being the tract on which said Robert Hodges now lives, to have and to hold the same, with the appurtenances thereof to him and his heirs forever. Secondly I give and bequeath unto my sons Josiah Hodges and William Hodges the balance of my landed estate consisting of two surveys of one hundred acres in each survey, to have and to hold the same with the appurtenances thereof to them and their heirs forever. Thirdly I give unto my son in law Washington Johnson Five Dollars. Fourthly I give unto my son in law Nathan Harris Five Dollars. Fifthly I give unto my son in law Abram K. Saunders five Dollars. Finally the balance of my property both real and personal, not hereby disposed of, it is my desire that said property be sold to the highest bidder, and the money to be divided equally between Robert Hodges, Josiah Hodges, William Hodges, and my daughter Anna Johnston. I appoint my son Josiah Hodges Executor to this my last will and testament, and it is my request that the Court receive him, without security. In witness whereof, I have hereunto Subscribed my name, this the 3rd day of September 1847. -- Signature: Portlock (X) Hodges. -- Teste: William Sharpe & W. J. Rogers

State of Kentucky, Lyon County -- I Marcus M. Tyler Clerk of the County Court of the County and State aforesaid, do hereby certify, that at a Court begun and held for said County of Lyon on Monday the 24th day of April 1854, The foregoing instrument of writing was produced to the Court by Josiah Hodges, for record as the last will and testament of Portlock Hodges (deceased) which was contested, and the same being proven by the oaths of William Sharpe an W. J. Rogers, the subscribing witnesses thereto, It is the opinion of the Court, that said Instrument of writing is the last will and testament of Portlock Hodges (deceased) and the same is ordered to be recorded, whereupon I have truly recorded the same, together with this certificate, in my office, Given under my hand this 10th day of May 1854. -- Marcus M.
